

Superior Aircraft Services, Inc

Date: 5/7/2007

To: Mr. Anthony Niedwiecki & Mr. Waymon Hudson, Broward County Aviation Department, Broward Sheriff's Office, United Airlines, South Florida news media organizations and the South Florida community
From: Superior Aircraft Services, Inc.'s owners
Subject: 05/01/07 Fort Lauderdale International Airport incident

Pursuant to an internal investigation by the owners of Superior Aircraft Services, Inc. it was determined and admitted by one of its' employee that the prank as previously reported in various news organizations did in fact take place.

Superior Aircraft Services, Inc.'s owners became aware of this event on Monday morning, May 7th, 2007 and immediately undertook the above investigation. The involved employee, Jethro Monestime, was terminated for his unacceptable and inappropriate action.

Superior Aircraft Services, Inc has been in operations since early 2000 and has never had an incident of this nature. Superior employs over 100 employees at the Fort Lauderdale International Airport and just under a thousand employees nation wide. In addition and over this time period Superior has employed several thousand employees without an incident, again, of this nature.

On behalf of Superior Aircraft Services, Inc., its owners and all of its employees, an apology is being extended to Mr. Anthony Niedwiecki and Mr. Waymon Hudson for the action of its former employee, Jethro Monestime. This action in no way reflects the views of Superior, its owners nor its employees. Superior is in the customer service industry and absolutely will not accept this type of action now or in the future.

In addition, this apology is extended to Broward County Aviation Department, the Broward Sheriff's Office, United Airlines and the South Florida community.

Again, please accept this apology for an action that is not indicative of Superior, its owners or its employees belief's.

Sincerely, the owners:

Donald Calder
Fred Williams
Danny Pyne
Clinton Watson
Robert Rose