CHARGE I: Violation of 10 U.S.C. § 950v(b)(28), Conspiracy

Specification: In that Ghassan Abdullah al Sharbi (“al Sharbi”), a person subject to trial by military commission as an alien unlawful enemy combatant, did, at various locations in Afghanistan, Pakistan and elsewhere, between about August 2001 and March 2002, conspire and agree with Usama bin Laden, Saif al Adel, Dr. Ayman al Zawahari (a/k/a “the Doctor”), Muhammad Atef (a/k/a Abu Hafs al Masri), Binyam Mohamed, Noor al Deen, Akrama al Sudani, Jabran Said Bin al Qahtani (“al Qahtani”), Sufyian Barhoumi (“Barhoumi”), and various other members and associates of the al Qaeda organization, known and unknown, to commit one or more substantive offenses triable by military commission, to wit: murder of a protected person or persons, attacking civilians, attacking civilian objects, intentionally causing serious bodily injury, murder in violation of the law of war, destruction of property in violation of the law of war, providing material support to an international terrorist organization and terrorism; and did join al Qaeda, an enterprise of persons who shared a common criminal purpose, that involved, at least in part, the commission or intended commission of one or more of the said substantive offenses triable by military commission; and did, with knowledge of the common criminal purpose of the al Qaeda enterprise and of the unlawful purposes of the agreement, willfully join the al Qaeda enterprise and willfully enter into the agreement with the intent to further those unlawful purposes, and knowingly commit one or more of the following overt acts in order to accomplish some objective or purpose of the enterprise and the agreement:

- a. On or about August 2001, al Sharbi, a Saudi citizen and a graduate of the Prescott, Arizona campus of Embry Riddle University with a degree in electrical engineering, left the Saudi Arabia in order to receive terrorist training in Afghanistan.
- b. In August 2001, al Sharbi attended the al Qaeda-run al Farouq training camp, where he was first introduced to Usama bin Laden. At al Farouq, al Sharbi’s training included, inter alia, physical training, military tactics, weapons instruction, and firing a variety of individual and crew-served weapons.
- c. During August and September 2001, al Sharbi stood watch with loaded weapons at al Farouq at times when Usama bin Laden visited the camp.

- d. From August 2001 to September 13, 2001, al Sharbi provided English translation for another camp attendee's military training at al Farouq, to include translating the attendee's personal bayat ("oath of allegiance") to Usama bin Laden.
- e. On or about September 13, 2001, anticipating a military response to al Qaeda's attacks on the United States of September 11, 2001, al Sharbi and the remaining trainees evacuated from al Farouq. Al Sharbi and others fled the camp and were told to fire warning shots in the air if they saw American missiles approaching.
- f. In December 2001, al Sharbi followed the orders of Muhammad Atef (a/k/a/ Abu Hafs al Masri), the head of al Qaeda's military committee and al Qaeda's military commander. Muhammad Atef ordered that al Sharbi, as one of two "brothers" from the al Farouq training camp, receive electronically-controlled explosives training in Pakistan, for the purpose of establishing a new and independent section of the military committee.
- g. Between late December 2001 and the end of February 2002, al Sharbi, al Qahtani and Binyam Mohamed moved from Birmel, Afghanistan, to a safe house in Faisalabad, Pakistan, where they would obtain further training.
- h. In March 2002, Barhoumi facilitated the purchase of electronic components, which included, inter alia, electrical resistors, plastic resistors, light bulbs for circuit board lights, plastic and ceramic diodes, circuit testing boards, an ohmmeter, watches, soldering wire, soldering guns, wire and coil, six cell phones of a specified model, transformers and an electronics manual. While at the Faisalabad guesthouse, using these recently purchased supplies, al Sharbi trained on how to build hand-held remote-detonation devices for explosives.
- i. After Qahtani and Sharbi completed their training and sufficient number of circuit boards were built, al Sharbi intended to return to Afghanistan in order to use, and to train others to construct remote-control devices to detonate, car bombs against United States forces.
- j. On March 28, 2002, al Sharbi, Barhoumi, al Qahtani, and others were captured in a safe house in Faisalabad after authorities raided the home.

CHARGE II: Violation of 10 U.S.C. § 950v (b)(25) Providing Material Support for Terrorism

Specification: In that Ghassan Abullah al Sharbi, a person subject to trial by military commission as an alien unlawful enemy combatant, did, at various locations in Afghanistan, Pakistan and elsewhere, between about August 2000 and March 2002, in the context of or associated with an armed conflict, intentionally provide material support to al Qaeda, an international terrorist organization engaged in hostilities against the United States, knowing that such organization has engaged or engages in terrorism, by performing at least one of the following acts:

- a. On or about August 2001, al Sharbi, a Saudi citizen and a graduate of the Prescott, Arizona campus of Embry Riddle University with a degree in electrical engineering, left the Saudi Arabia in order to receive terrorist training in Afghanistan.
- b. In August 2001, al Sharbi attended the al Qaeda-run al Farouq training camp, where he was first introduced to Usama bin Laden. Combatant Status Review Board

TO: Personal Representative

FROM: OIC, CSRT (4 November 2004)

Subject: Summary of Evidence for Combatant Status Review Tribunal – AL SHIRBI, Ghassan Abdallah Ghazi

1. Under the provisions of the Secretary of the Navy Memorandum, dated 29 July 2004, Implementation of Combatant Status Review Tribunal Procedures for Enemy Combatants Detained at Guantanamo Bay Naval Base Cuba, a Tribunal has been appointed to review the detainee's designation as an enemy combatant.
2. An enemy combatant has been defined as "an individual who was part of or supporting the Taliban or al Qaida forces, or associated forces that are engaged in hostilities against the United States or its coalition partners. This includes any person who committed a belligerent act or has directly supported hostilities in aid of enemy armed forces."
3. The United States Government has previously determined that the detainee is an enemy combatant. This determination is based on information possessed by the United States indicating that the detainee is associated with al Qaida.
  - A. The detainee is associated with al Qaida:
    1. The detainee was born in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia.
    2. In August of 2001, the detainee traveled from Jeddah, Saudi Arabia to Faisalabad, Pakistan via Dubai, United Arab Emirates and Karachi, Pakistan.
    3. The detainee lived in a safe house with senior al Qaida operative in Pakistan until the time of the detainee's capture.
    4. The detainee was captured by Pakistani forces in a March 2002 raid of the safe house in Faisalabad, Pakistan.
    5. Abu Zubaydah is a senior Al-Qaida lieutenant.
    6. The detainee taught English to other guests at the safehouse in Faisalabad, Pakistan.
    7. The detainee received specialized training on remote control devices for use in explosives to detonate bombs against Afghani and United States forces.
    8. The detainee received military training, including Basic Weapons (use, operation, and assembly/disassembly of assault rifles, UZI, Khalishnikov, Seminovs, M-16 and RPGs), Basic Warfare Tactics (tactical movement, concealment and mine avoidance) and navigation (navigation using compass, watch, stick in the ground against sunlight method and celestial methods) at a terrorist training camp in Afghanistan.
    9. Usama Bin Laden visited a terrorist training camp in Afghanistan about ten times while the detainee was receiving training at that camp.

UNCLASSIFIED

10. The detainee was observed chatting and laughing like pals with Usama Bin Laden during Bin Laden's visits to that particular terrorist training camp.

11. The detainee pressured another man to swear bayat to Usama Bin Laden during a face-to-face meeting at that particular terrorist training camp.

12. The detainee admittedly supports the jihad and the Chechens in the fight against the Russians.

13. The detainee wanted to be a mujihadeen freedom fighter.

14. In December 2001, the detainee was one of approximately 100 mujahideen near Birmal, Afghanistan.

15. The detainee is called the "electronic builder" by GTMO detainees, and is known as "Abu Zubaydah's right hand man".

4. The detainee has the opportunity to contest his designation as an enemy combatant. The Tribunal will endeavor to arrange for the presence of any reasonably available witnesses or evidence that the detainee desires to call or introduce to prove that he is not an enemy combatant. The Tribunal President will determine the reasonable availability of evidence or witnesses.

Tribunal President: Does the Recorder have any witnesses to present?

Recorded: No Ma'am

Tribunal President: Does the Recorder have any further evidence?

Recorder: Ma'am President, I have no further unclassified information for the tribunal but request a closed tribunal session at an appropriate time to present classified information relevant to this detainee's status as an enemy combatant.

Tribunal President: Recorder, you will be allowed that opportunity at a later time.

Tribunal President: I see, by the detainee election form, that you have elected to participate today as evidence of your being here. Ghassan Abdallah Ghazi Al Shirbi, you may now present any evidence that you have to the tribunal and you have the assistance of your personal representative in doing so. Do you wish to present information to this tribunal and would you like to make your statement under oath?

Detainee: I have something short to say and I will say it.

Tribunal President: Do you wish to do that under oath or not?

Detainee: For sure, I will take an oath.

Tribunal President: Recorder would you please administer the oath.

Recorder: Please repeat.

Detainee: I have my own oath, I will say it myself.

Tribunal President: OK

Detainee: I swear to almighty god there is no god but him, that I will not only say the truth but fight for the truth, and I will be an enemy fighter to whoever is against the truth and god be my witness.

Tribunal President: You may begin.

Detainee: Honestly I did not come here to defend myself, but defend the Islamic nation, this is my duty and I have to do it. This is an important issue, more important like I said, you gathered here to look at what you have written and you will come up with a classification if this is an enemy combatant or not. If they come up with the classification enemy combatant, it is my honor to have this classification in this world until the end, until eternity, god be my witness. You have given me fifteen accusations and I said to myself in my prison let's take all the accusations.

Translator: Sorry, let him repeat so I can translate.

Detainee: I said to myself in my prison, let's take all the accusations in context on you, like you did. So I found the accusation against you to be many. I will try to count those accusations but they were many so honestly I did not count. It starts from being the infidel against god and it's profits and you being against Jesus Christ and making him a god and the son of god and he is a prophet that was sent like Moses, Abraham, and Mohammad and making him ware (ph.). You left your religion or the faith of god and the only thing what was known was Sunday. Well some of you, not all of you, know god only on Sunday and some don't know god at all. You adopted this religion you call democracy and based on this religion being the head of capitalism. I speak but I also speak English very well, but it is a custom that people like her (the translator) between me and you (tribunal) that carry my color but they are from you, so let them in between us so I will say capitalism upon you.

Translator: I am sorry one word I do not understand does not come up to my mind.

Tribunal President: That is OK

Detainee: Capitalism is a revolution and the money is in few people's hands. Ninety percent of the money in the world is in the hands of ten percent of the people thanks to capitalism. You are reaching social, reaching even in your country a father cannot forbid his son to sleep with another man or have sexual relationship with another man under the name of human rights. There is a lot of other examples, your support of those governments in other countries and is known to be supported by weapons by you and financial support and moral support and your support for Israel upon land that is broken promises and promised land.

Translator: I sorry, I am having some problems understanding some words.

Detainee: The torah (ph.) has been changed and you came with something that is no more than a hundred years old and you support it. And supporting Saddam Hussein and so on, and killing one million Iraqi children and accusing Saddam Hussein and you forgot you are the one who made him up when you were scared of the Iran revolution and it does not end. Your culture chose to review the enemy combatant status. Your status as enemy combatants does not need a court. For your culture, the enemy combatant is Muslims Islam. Enemies yes, combatants no, you only wear the uniforms of what you call a coalition forces what I call traitors. I do not have anything to add and I do not want to say anything more then this and I do not want to hear more than this Tribunal President: So that concludes your statement?

The Tribunal President confirmed that the Personal Representative had no further evidence to present and that the Detainee no previously approved witnesses to present to the Tribunal and closed the open session.

Detainee: [Starts to chant]

Tribunal President: Ghassan Abdallah Ghazi Al Shirbi shall be notified of the tribunal decision upon completion of the review of these proceedings by the convening authority in Washington D.C. If the tribunal does not decide that you are classified an enemy combatant you will be released to your own country as soon as arrangements can be made. We have other information to give you. Would you like to listen to it? If not, this will end our open session.

Detainee: [Still chanting]

The Tribunal President explained the remainder of the Tribunal process to the Detainee and adjourned the open session.

Tribunal President: We are going to reopen the unclassified session to allow the translator to translate of what the detainee was chanting as we adjourned and dismissed him from the room.

Translator: He said, "May god help me fight the infidels or the unfaithful ones".

Tribunal President: I appreciate that and of course we had the guards remove the detainee from the room. So at this point it concludes the open session of this tribunal.
