

“AS PRESIDENT,
I WILL CLOSE GUANTANAMO,
REJECT THE MILITARY COMMISSIONS ACT,
AND ADHERE TO THE GENEVA CONVENTIONS”

– BARACK OBAMA, 8/1/07

ON DAY ONE,
with the stroke of a pen,
you can restore America’s moral leadership in the world.

For the past eight years, The American Civil Liberties Union has led the battle against the most un-American policies in recent history.

The Bush administration created a prison camp at Guantanamo – a place where they claimed the law didn’t apply. They detained hundreds of men without charge or trial, prosecuted others in unconstitutional military commissions and authorized torture. President-Elect Obama, with a stroke of your presidential pen on Day One of your administration, you can ensure that our government will be faithful to the Constitution and to the principles on which America was founded. Close Guantanamo and shut down the military commissions. Give us back the America we believe in.
